TxDMV opens new Dallas South Regional Service Center to improve customer access in North Texas

Facility in Duncanville features upgraded infrastructure and streamlined services

(AUSTIN, Texas – August 5, 2025) The Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV) has opened the new Dallas South Regional Service Center to deliver faster, more efficient motor vehicle services to the rapidly growing North Texas region.

Located at 562 East Wheatland Road in Duncanville, the new office features upgraded infrastructure, a spacious indoor waiting room, a modern, customer-focused design, and ample parking for cars and trucks. All TxDMV Regional Service Center locations provide the following services:

- Replacement titles
- Bonded title rejection letters
- Title history inquiries
- Title error resolution
- Apportioned registration for motor carriers
- Vehicle transfer notifications

The new Dallas South Regional Service Center serves customers across Collin, Dallas, Ellis, Fannin, Grayson, Henderson, Hunt, Kaufman, Navarro, Rockwall, and Van Zandt counties.

Important Notice: The Dallas North Regional Service Center (1925 East Belt Line Road, Suite 100, Carrollton) is temporarily closed for facility maintenance. Once reopened, it will continue to serve residents of Collin, Dallas, Fannin, Grayson, Hunt, Kaufman, and Rockwall counties. In the meantime, customers may visit the new Dallas South Regional Service Center in Duncanville or the Fort Worth Regional Service Center (2425 Gravel Drive, Fort Worth).

Please Remember: Most vehicle title and registration services — including registration renewals and title applications — are handled through your county tax assessor-collector's office. Driver licenses are issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety.
